

New research cabin(s) in Kobbefjord Greenland Institute of Natural Resources

Katrine Raundrup

Greenland Institute of Natural Resources, Nuuk

By law GINR is obliged to

- provide the scientific foundation for a sustainable use of the living resources in and around Greenland
- safeguard the environment and the biological diversity
- monitor species of economic and cultural relevance
- give scientific advice to the Government of Greenland
- communicate results of research and knowledge of the nature in general

Facilities in and around Nuuk

1. Main building (1998)

Offices, labs, freezers, meeting rooms

2. Annex (2000)

Accommodation, meeting room

3. Field station in Kobbefjord (2010) (30 min. in fast boat)

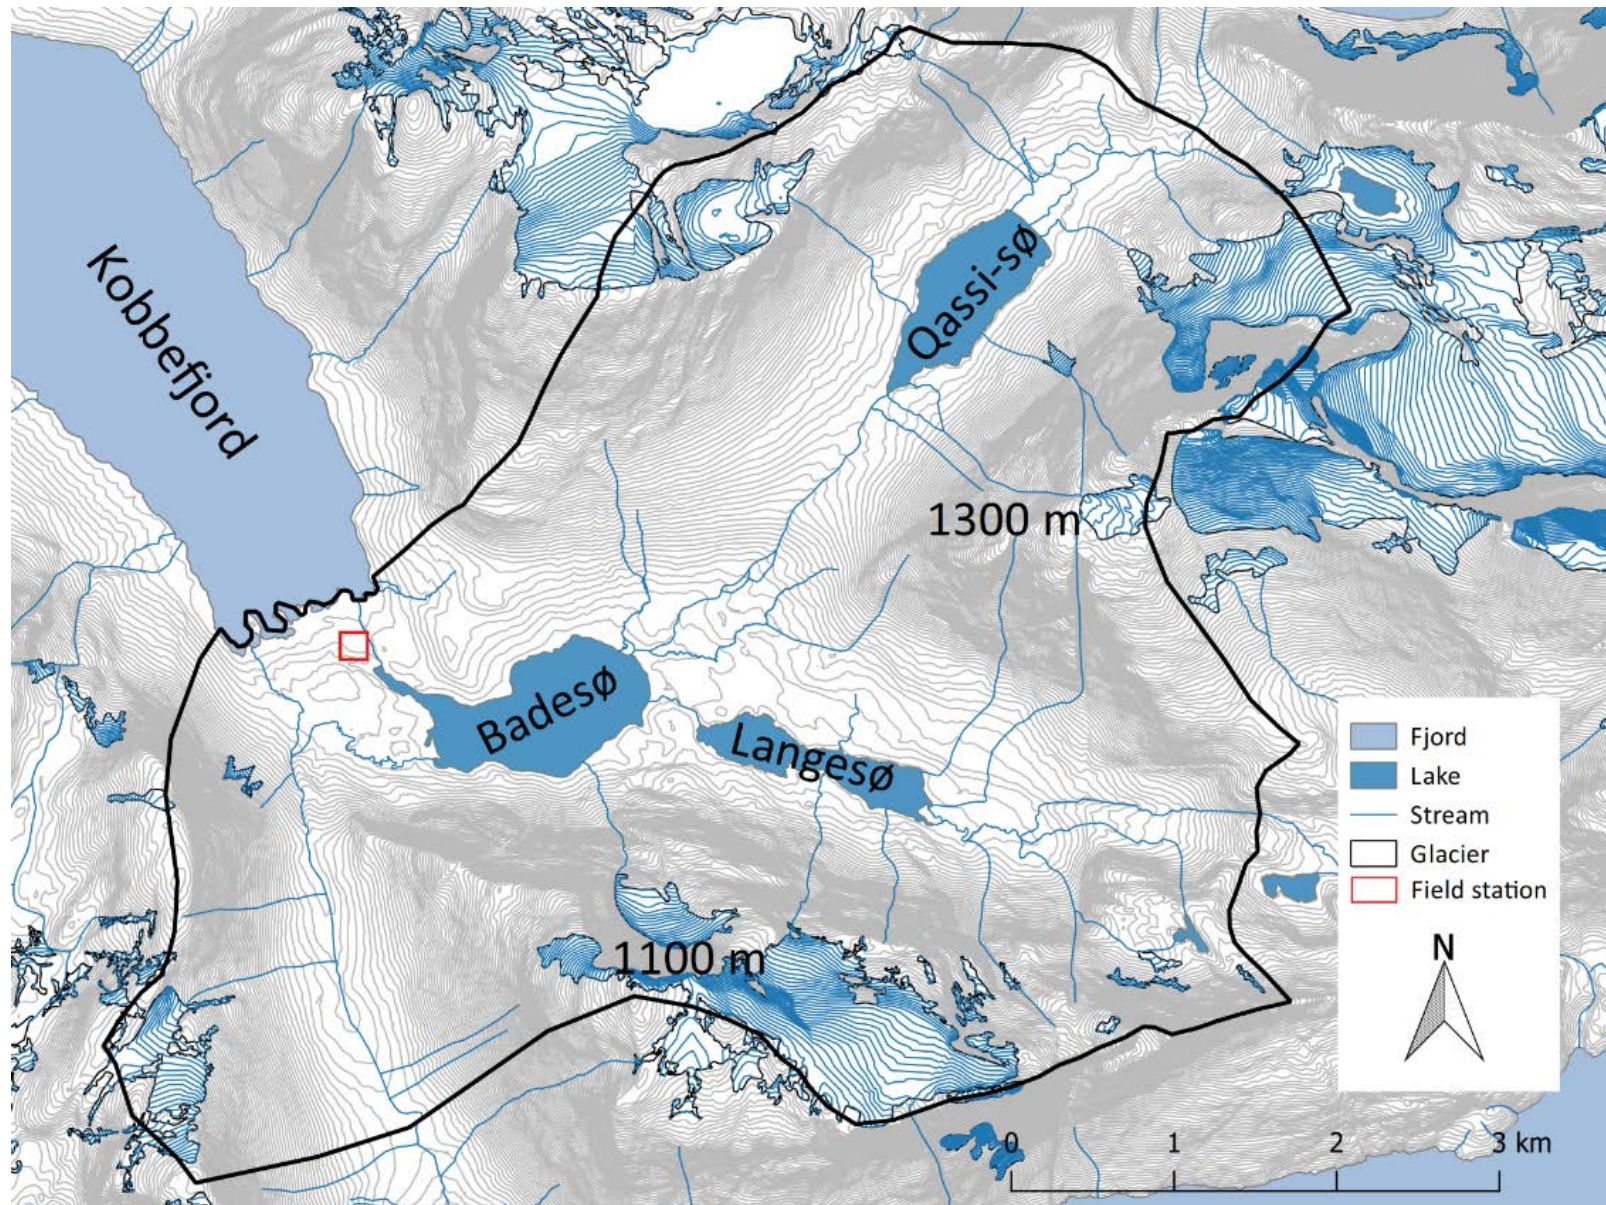

Accommodation (4 people),
primitive lab, storage
Expansion in 2019

4. “New building” – Education (2017)

Auditorium, meeting rooms labs, accommodation

Private funding by Aage V. Jensens Foundation

Plan af hytte, målestok 1:50

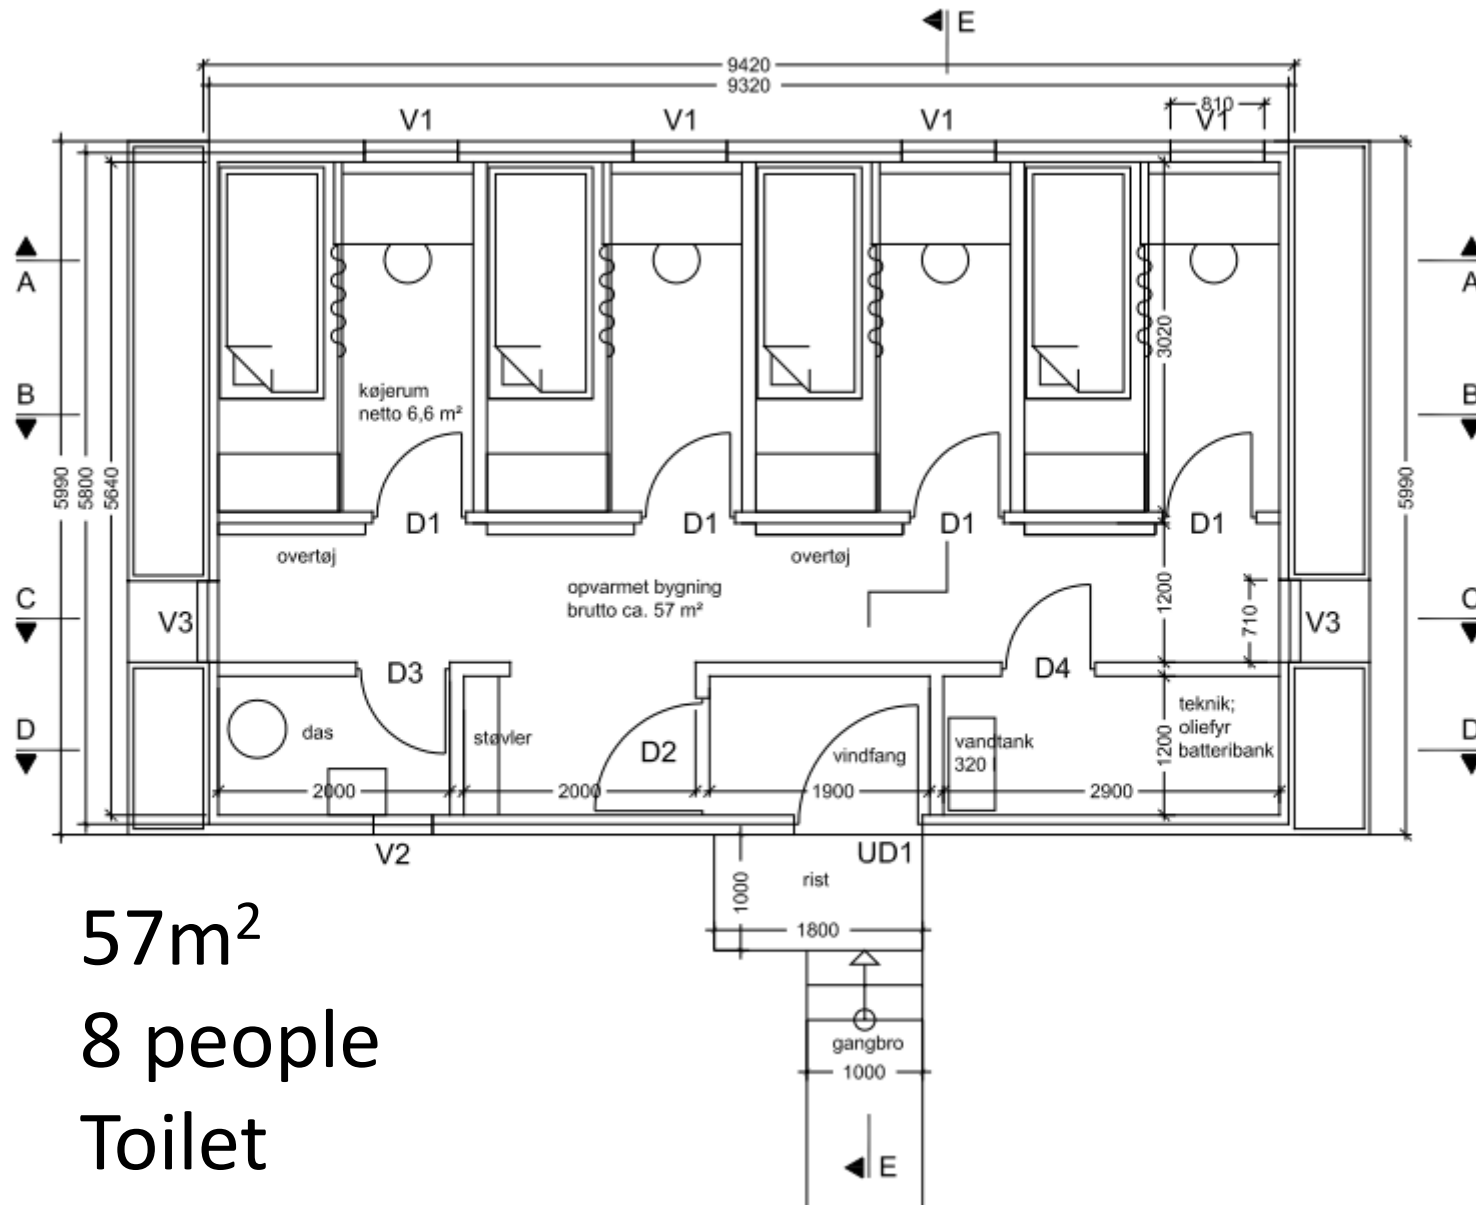

”All in one room”
Accommodates 4 people
Kitchen
Toilet/shower
Storage/”lab”
Ca. 50m², off-grid

Funding secured for 2
additional buildings
>2.5 mill dkk. = ca. €335000

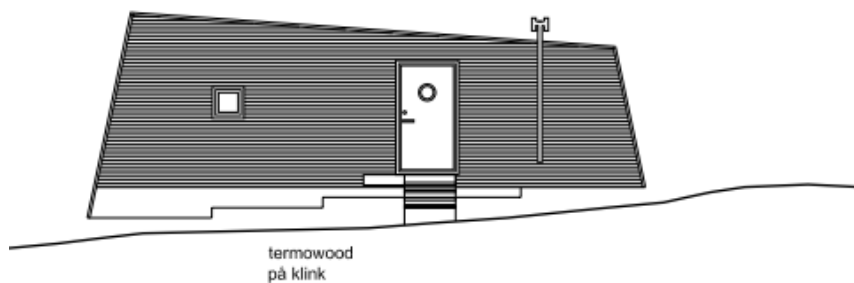

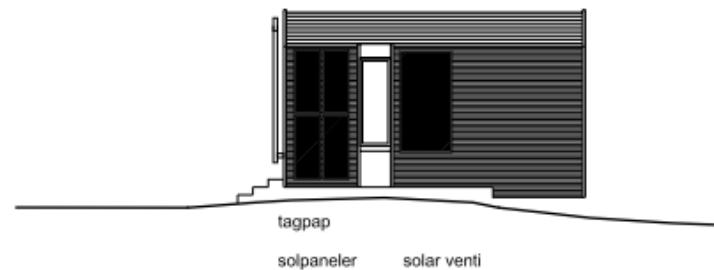

57m²

8 people

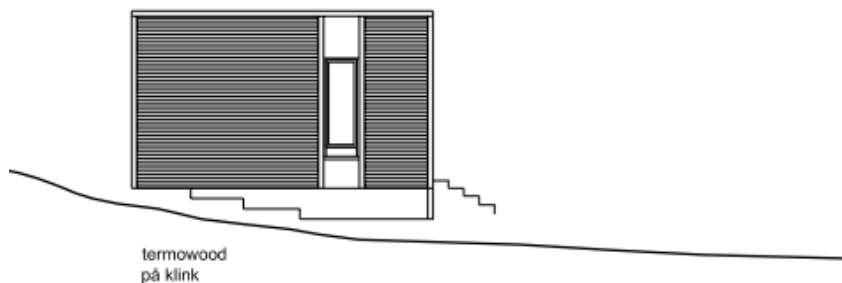

Toilet

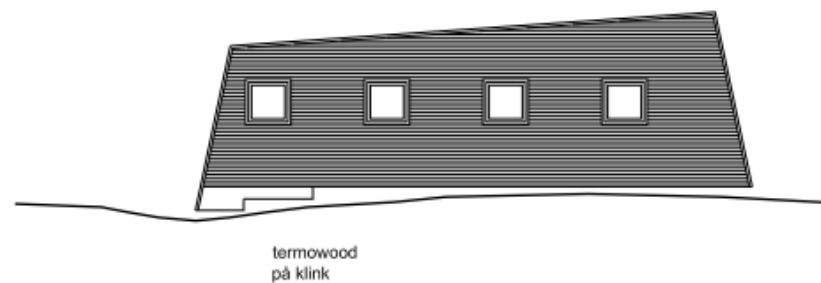

indgangsfacade mod vest

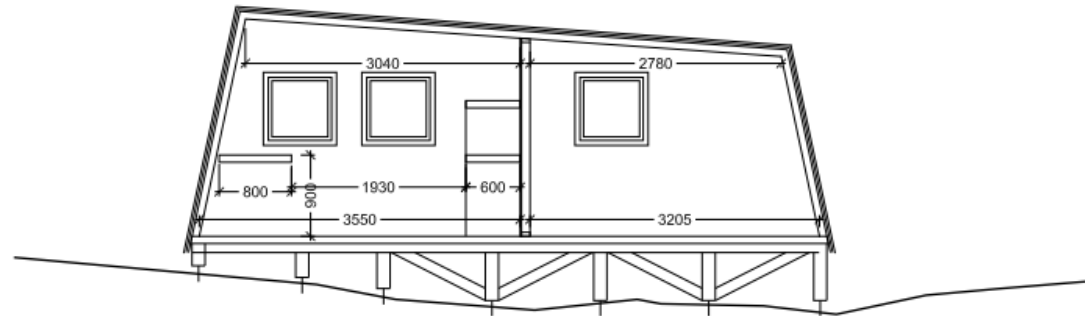

sydgavl

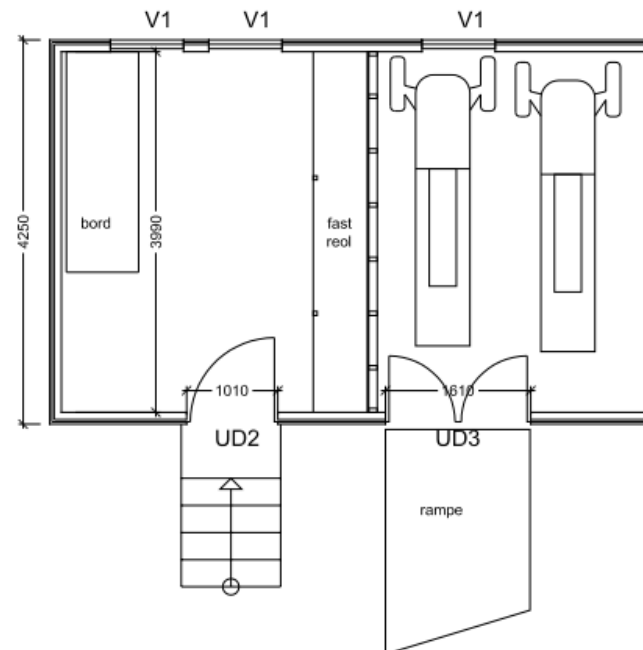

nordgavl

facade mod øst

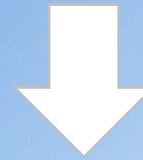

Ca. 30m² storage

15 Aleo Solar panels
12 Lead crystal batteries 120AH (17,3kwh)

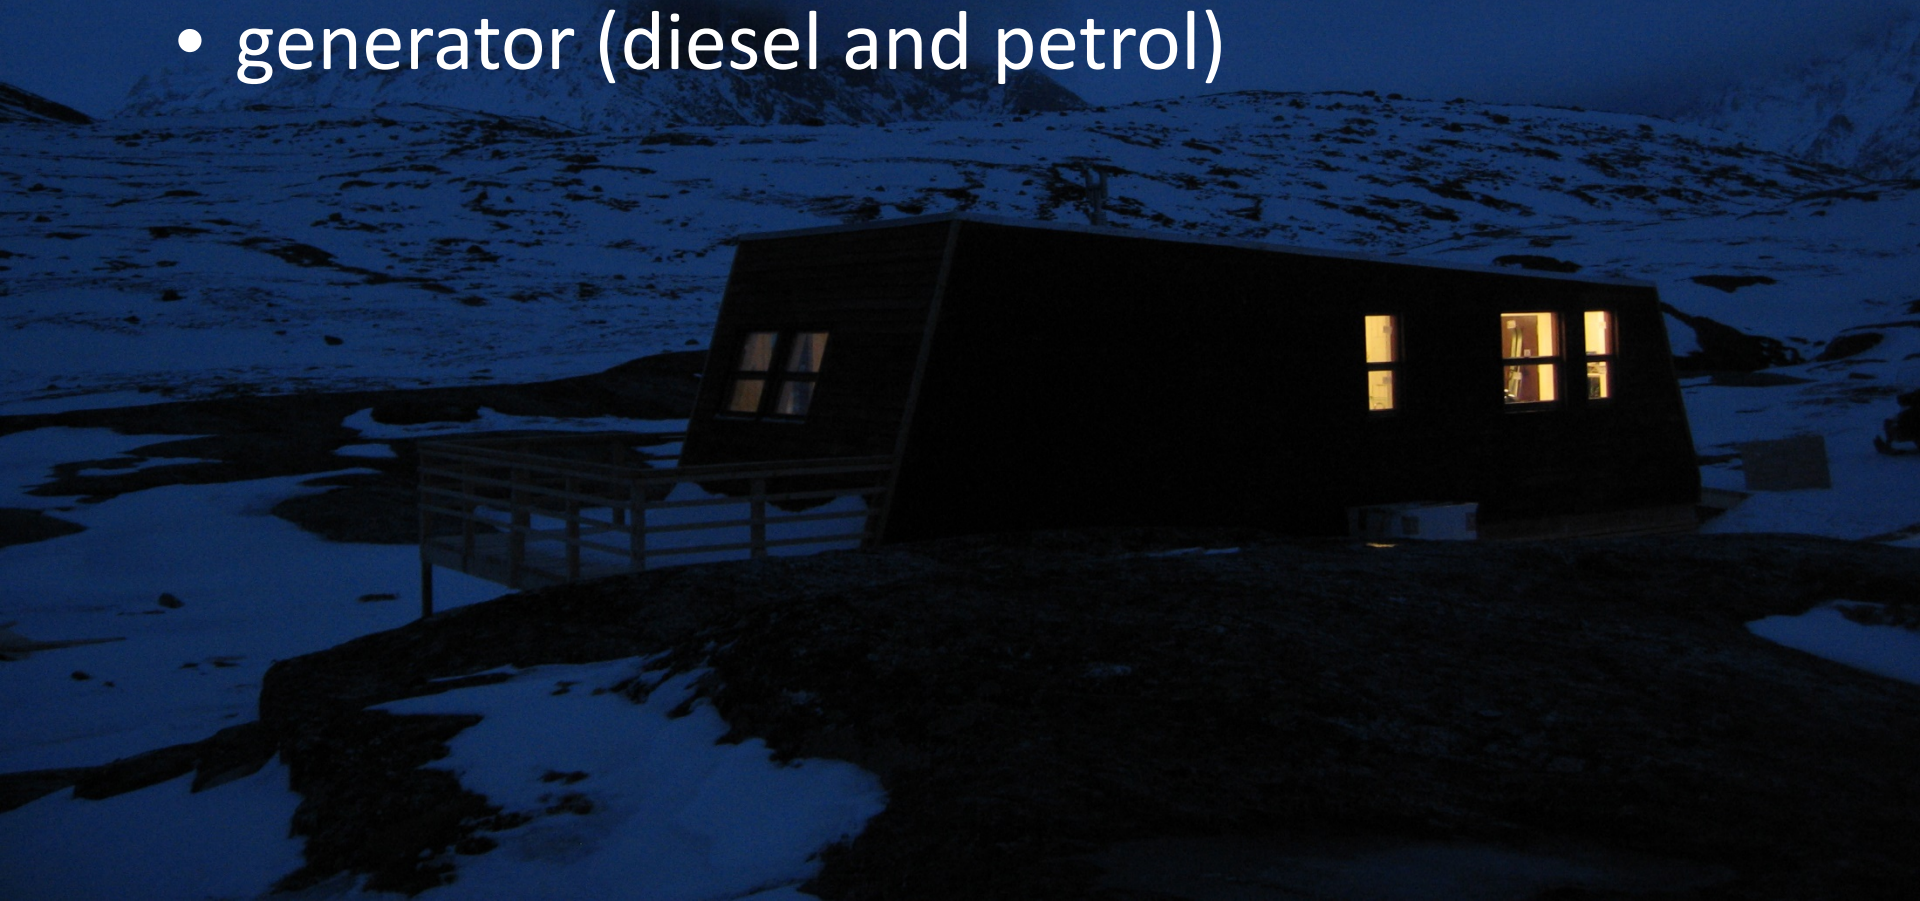

Heating radiators and water

28/08/2019 08:25

Shoulder seasons and periods with little sun

- heating oven (diesel)
- generator (diesel and petrol)

@NuukNERO

GEM

Greenland Ecosystem Monitoring

www.g-e-m.dk

www.natur.gl